Sir,

The Muhammadan inhabitants of the city of Mysore, who bury their dead in the burial ground behind the central jail, requested that a mantap might be built on their burial ground to afford shelter to the persons resorting to the place, there being no accommodation there. As the people that take the dead, have to wait till graves are dug, the Board are of opinion that some kind of relief is urgently in the matter. They have therefore resolved that in such cases, a grant-in-aid might be given not exceeding Rs 200. A copy of their resolution is enclosed for sanction. The amount may be paid out of the — — "General Savings".

I have the honor to be,
Sir

Your most obedient Servant
